

FUGITIVE POPE

Special War Issue one bloody dollar January 19-25, 1991

Anti-

WAR

PRELIMINARY MATTERS

Fugitive Pope is normally a bimonthly publication issued on the first days of January, March, May, July, September, and November. Normal focus is eclectic, detritus of the information age, and just plain old shit with an unabashed leftist tilt. This special issue concerns the war in the Persian Gulf. All dollars sent for this issue will be dipped in blood and burned in protest against the insanity.

This issue has no volume or issue number. It is produced as an act of conscience.

Motto no. 1: Feel free to be offended by the contents. I don't mind at all.

Motto no. 2: If it seems amateurish, it's because it is.

God (kill) bless America (kill),
Land that I (kill) love,
Stand (kill) beside her,
And (kill) guide her,
Through the (kill) night,
With a (kill) light from (kill) above.

From the (kill) mountains,
To the (kill) prairies,
To the (kill) oceans,
Whiiiiite with (kill) foam!

God (kill) bless America,
My (kill) home (kill) sweet (kill) home!
(kill, kill, kill !!!)

ATTENTION K-MART SHOPPERS !!!

Ok, now that Germany just pledged to up their ante by a cool one billion dollars, at two billion dollars a day to stay at war, let's see, uhmmm, Germany just bought twelve hours of war time. Such a deal!

FIGHTING

Smart Bombs

Free-Fall Bombs

Rockets

Guns

Win the War,
There's nothing comes before;
Win, win, win the war.
This vital call rings clarion-clear
To all who have the will to hear,
To all who hold their country dear;
To every woman, child, and man,
To every American --
Win the war.

Win the War,
There's nothing comes before;
Win, win, win the war.
This goal transcends all civil strife,
Now that the need is doubly rife,
Now that the millions fight for life;
So let each woman, child, and man,
Let every American --
Win the war.

Win the War,
There's nothing comes before;
Win, win, win the war.
The soldier fights where hell holds sway,
He bleeds through twice twelve hours a day,
He dies with duty his aim and pay;
Then have each woman, child, and man,
Have every American --
Win the war.

Win the War,
There's nothing comes before;
Win, win, win the war.
The fronts abroad and home are one,
A shot may mean we've lost or won,
Whate'er your part be sure it's well done;
Then may each woman, child, and man,
May every American --
Win the war.

Win the War,
There's nothing comes before;
Win, win, win the war.
The strike's a sword at each one's breast,
He serves himself who serves the rest,
The country of all, by all be blessed;
So must each woman, child, and man,
Must every American --
Win the war.

POEM FOR OUR BOYS (in 1954 "Congressional Record")

RIPOSTE

STANDING NAKED ON THE PARADE
PLATFORM, WHITE BOY ADDRESSES
EVERY VETERAN'S DAY PARADE

Let me say to you this day of Veterans who died, fucked, walked, got shot a little bit and a lot, of Veterans who read comic books, listened to the World Series on the Armed fucking
Forces Radio, defended our country from shared wealth, from mixed-up races, defended us from big bombs but made sure other countries got hit with even bigger bombs, who wore dumb-looking uniforms, but were also ready to get real good benefits because they wore them, even today as you look to your left and you look to your right, and you look in the gutter over there and even down on your own too-tight, baggy-assed, shitstained pants and remember, we must always remember, you dumb mother-fucks that this day is our Veteran's fucking Day to celebrate the fucking fact that our Country will always, I mean always provide enough wars to have enough Veterans to have another fucking parade at least as good as this for ever and ever!

TRUTH IN REPORTING

From the inaugural issue of Bellywash (Craig Michaels, PO Box 151481, Altamonte Springs, FL 32715 / $1.50 or "the usual") on page 7 we find the kind of stuff not encountered by the "free" press (subject to military censorship - remember, no interviews with chaplains and no pictures of body bags).

"... last, a portion of a letter sent to Kurt Holley from a friend overseas ... just in case we need to be reminded that the government actually lies to us from time to time ..."

Hey man, check it out. I forgot to send this off at the airport, so I'm actually here in bumfuck stinky ass Saudi Arabia, and man, it SUCKS!! During the day here it's like 735 degrees with 527 percent humidity, not to mention this whole place smells. The people are dirty, ugly, smelly and have an attitude towards Americans. Man, what have I done?? Fucked up, that's what I've done. Since we've been here, we've found out that every single thing they told us is a fucking lie, man. This whole situation is wrong. We shouldn't be here at all. The good ol' righteous U.S. Government sure is putting a lot of people's lives on the line for oil!! But that's our good ol' government, always concerned for the welfare of people who don't give a fuck about us, right?

I sure hope this doesn't turn into a war because if it does the bumbling 3-ring circus that calls itself the Army is fucked.

Kurt, take it upon yourself (as a favor to me) to warn anyone you may know of who is thinking of making the same mistake I did. They'll thank you later on, believe me. I wish I would have gotten kicked out like I had planned a few months back ...

MODERN ANTI-WAR ANTHEM

When the Shit Hits the Fan

by The Circle Jerks

In a sluggish economy,
Inflation, recession hits the land of the free,
Stand in unemployment lines,
Blame the government for hard times,
We just get by,
However we can,
We all gotta duck,
When the shit hits the fan.

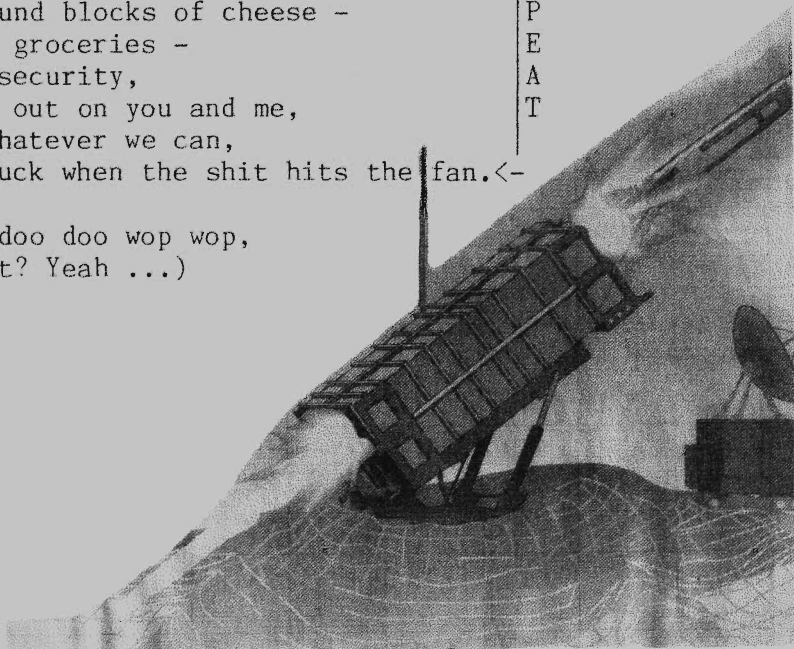

Ten kids in a cadillac,
Stand in line for welfare checks,
Let's all leach off the state,
Gee! The money's REALLY great!
We just get by,
However we can,

We all gotta duck,
When the shit hits the fan.

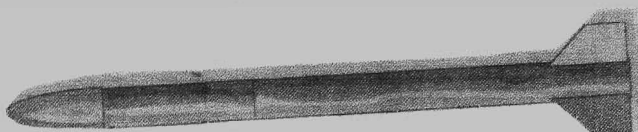

Soup lines -
Free loaves of bread -
Five pound blocks of cheese -
Bags of groceries -
Social security,
Has run out on you and me,
We do whatever we can,
Gotta duck when the shit hits the fan.<-

Patriotism, n. Combustible rubbish ready to the torch of any one ambitious to illuminate his name.

In Dr. Johnson's famous dictionary patriotism is defined as the last resort of a scoundrel. With all due respect to an enlightened but inferior lexicographer I beg to submit that it is the first.

Peace, n. In international affairs, a period of cheating between two periods of fighting.

OUR NOBLE EDUCATION SYSTEM HAS HANDS SOAKED IN BLOOD

According to the Los Angeles Times (Jan. 18, 1991, section 2, page 8) the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) is selling the names, addresses, and phone numbers of juniors and seniors to military recruiters. At three pennies per name, the LAUSD made a little over $8,000 last year.

Lists including minority and poor schools are particularly popular among recruiters for their higher potential in obtaining the desired product.

OUR PALS, THE MEDIA

Friday, January 18th, app. 10:00 am on KCRW, Santa Monica, California (National Public Radio).

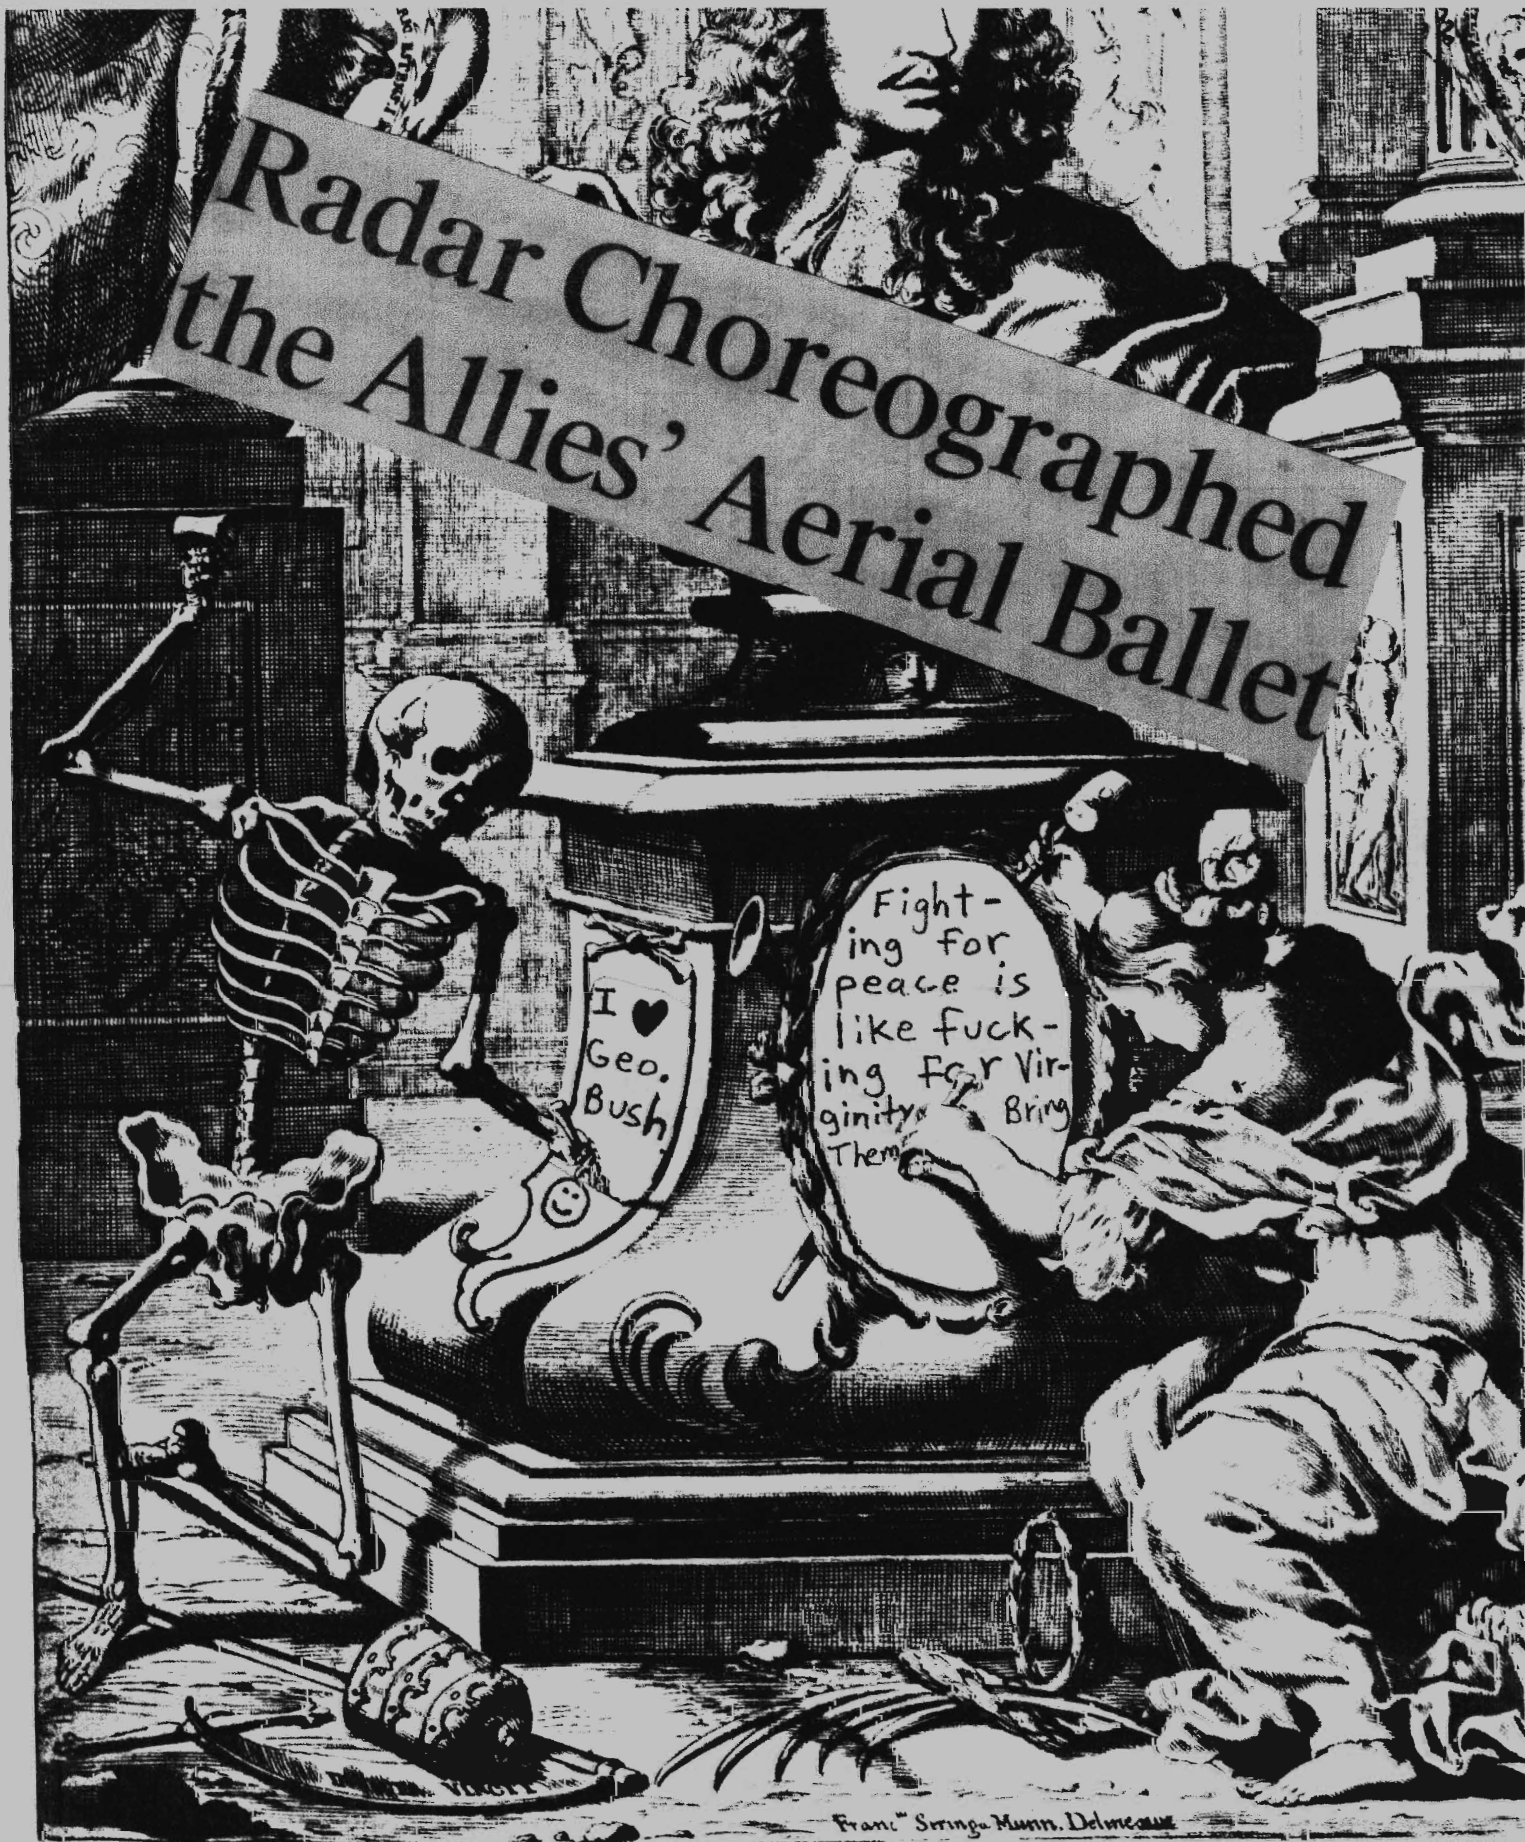

General Manager Ruth Hirschman (who is Jewish) claimed that her upbringing in the streets of the Bronx allowed her unusual insights into the mind of the "Arab in the street." Hirschman claimed that Iraqi SCUD missile attacks on Israel were of little emotional consequence to the Arab populace. In the same broadcast Hirschman marveled at the bloodlessness of the war. I guess it depends on whose blood is being shed, eh Ruth?

Same day, app. 12:30 am on KTTV ch. 11, Los Angeles.

Local broadcasters examined their coverage of anti-war protests across the country, shaking their heads condescendingly at the "massive" coverage of these activities. In order to demonstrate to the viewers that life as usual goes on around the protests, KTTV showed students blithely registering for classes and paying fees at UCLA's main administration building, Murphy Hall, while UCLA anti-war student protests were taking place. This account seemed incongruous to the author who vividly remembers shutting down all services (with about 1,000 other protesting students) by standing in front of the same service windows KTTV videotape had just shown as being open. Murphy Hall was occupied through the night culminating in 117 arrests at 10:30 am on January 18.

We all know that the media lies (it is the nature of a restricted point of view) but it is a shock to live inside that which is being lied about, and then see the bullshit. An unidentified NBC network reporter asked a student how he could continue to occupy Murphy Hall in protest when he had no access to broadcast media and thus "didn't know what was going on." The implication was that the media knows what's going on. The student laughed at her naive presumption. Just because it's on the air doesn't mean it's true. Please note that "pool reporters" are actively censored by the military for "national security." Of course, with the dregs that are left we are supposed to form an informed opinion.

This Pentagon combat pool report was reviewed by military censors.

Idiot, n. A member of a large and powerful tribe whose influence in human affairs has always been dominant and controlling. The Idiot's activity is not confined to any special field of thought or action, but "pervades and regulates the whole." He has the last word in everything; his decision is unappealable. He sets the fashions of opinion and taste, dictates the limitations of speech and circumscribes conduct with a dead-line.

- Ambrose Bierce

Insanity, n. War.

DRAFT THEIR ASSES

Stanley Wagner of Phoenix, Arizona, proposes an immediate draft of National Rifle Association members and all others who possess guns. According to the oft-cited second ammendment of the United States Constitution:

"A well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

Those who hold this law so literal and dear are thus, by direct implication, immediately eligible for duty in Iraq and Kuwait as a ready-made "well-regulated militia."

Those who think our action is a "good idea" should put their beliefs and lives on the line. According to them, the Constitution requires it. It's easy to put someone else's life on the line.

How many of those polled who support this insanity in Iraq would respond favorably to the question:

"Will you join the military in order to personally put into practice the policies you 'support'?"

CICCIOLINA'S ALTERNATIVES TO WAR

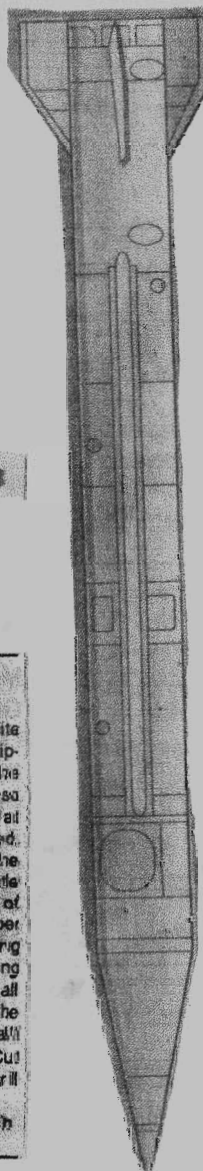

Staller

■ Offbeat Offer: Ilona Staller, the former porn queen who is now a member of the Italian Parliament, wants to help solve the Mideast crisis. "I am available to make love with [Saddam] Hussein," Staller said in Buenos Aires. "I am willing to let him have his way with me if in exchange he frees the hostages." An Argentine Christian group complained about Staller's "exhibitionist attitudes."

■ SEA SPARROW

DEFECTIVE BAG FOR THE DEADLY DULL

Area cadaver bag, honest!! It's white heavy duty vinyl 36" x 93" with a zip-lock zipper up the middle of one of the 93" sides. They were stored folded so now the zipper doesn't stay sealed at the places where the bag got creased. We think a little relaxation time in the warm sun, perhaps aided by gentle use of a hair dryer will cure many of the problems, but we make no promises. Ex the zipper problem they are completely air and water tight. Assuming you have no cadavers to bag, consider use as a sleeping bag, ground cover, a huge blanket storage bag to hold all the blankets at the summer cabin or a garment bag for the long evening gown you bought for that deadly dull formal!! Or slit it open at a side seam and use it for a bike cover. Cut it in half the short way and you have two barbecue grill covers and an unusual conversation item.

MORE CHEAP SHOTS AT THE PRESS

(but first a word from our sponsor)

Hi, Fugitive Pope himself here (bless you all). Ok, ok, so I'm ragging on the press a lot. But hey, it's only fair. Their multi-billion dollar commercial interests vs. my paid circulation of 61. Come now. Aren't you all a little tired of grazing on those bales of alfalfa disguised as newspapers (especially UCLA's own war mongering Daily Bruin; baa ... baa)?

Incongruous discussion on Los Angeles channel 9 (KCAL) at about 10:40 PM on January 25th. Pat Wells, environmentalist was discussing the tragic loss of animal life in the Persian Gulf oil spill. Granted this is a nasty, VERY NASTY, incident, am I the only one who finds the focus of the war on the "poor herons of the gulf" a bit absurd?

The above discussion followed a piece (same station) on the community of Twenty-Nine Palms, CA and its support of their boys (29-P is a major United States Marine Corps indoctrinating ground). Fine. No problem. I can understand, admire (yet not condone) blind community support of a bunch of guys who are basically screwed (being a Marine in Saudi). What was hard to understand was the slow-motion video of flags being waved with the plaintive vocal of I'm Proud to be an American overlayed by the "Prime 9 News Team" for the story. God bless responsible and objective journalism.

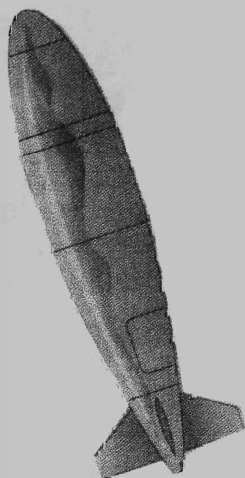

And please, oh wise and powerful American "free" press, stop giving such massive coverage to the anti-war peaceniks and their bongos and music and hippy beads. By the way, don't mind me, I just work in a major university's management library giving sophisticated information to future MBA's so I guess I just can't be an anti-war protestor. Must be that three piece suit that gives me away as a supporter of the administration's party line, eh?

YET MORE RESPONSIBLE JOURNALISM

From the Los Angeles Times, January 20, 1991 (pt. A, p. 3) we find two headlines mere inches apart. Note that those against the war 'shout' while those for the war 'raise their voices.' ... Hmmm Naaaaah.

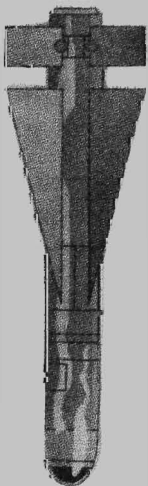

New Voices Shout Message From the '60s

■ Generations: At Westwood war protest, young people stir a sense of deja vu with bongo drums, tie-dyed shirts, granny glasses and songs of peace.

Other Voices Raised in Support of War

■ Backing: Polls have shown many Americans favor President Bush's action, but now more are beginning to speak out and are organizing rallies.

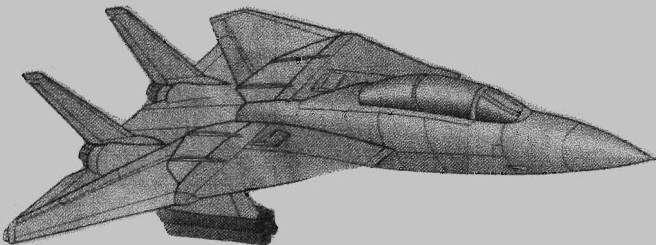

THE OTHER SIDE GETS THEIR SAY

These people don't answer their phone; all I wanted to tell them was that Iran really doesn't support the United Nations. So, I sent them a postcard instead (naught but the politest of phrasing, honest!). Anyhow, the unassailable logic in this ad should have its forum too, so ... here it is! Alex and Sara, I salute your biting intellectual arguments!

HITLER HUSSEIN UPSET PEACE!

HITLER HUSSEIN UPSET PEACE! PRESIDENT, JIMMY CARTER TOILED ARDUOUSLY TO BRING ABOUT PEACE BETWEEN AN ARAB NATION, EGYPT, AND THE JEWISH STATE, ISRAEL. SADDAM HUSSEIN, WARMONGER, USED HIS SOVIET SUPPLIED SCUD MISSILES TO UPSET THIS HARD-WON PEACE. HITLER HUSSEIN USED SOVIET SUPPLIED JETS IN HIS RUTHLESS ATTACKS UPON IRAN. THESE FACTS CLEARLY SHOW THAT THE KRAZY KOVIC KROWD ARE ANTI-AMERICAN AND ANTI-PEACE IN THEIR PROPAGANDA. THEY ARE APPEASERS! HUSSEIN, LIKE HITLER, HAS ATTACKED HIS NEIGHBORS WITHOUT PROVOCATION: IRAN, KUWAIT, AND ISRAEL. URGE ALL TO SUPPORT THE UNITED NATIONS.

PROBABLY MORE LIES FROM THE POPE

Irony number 1:

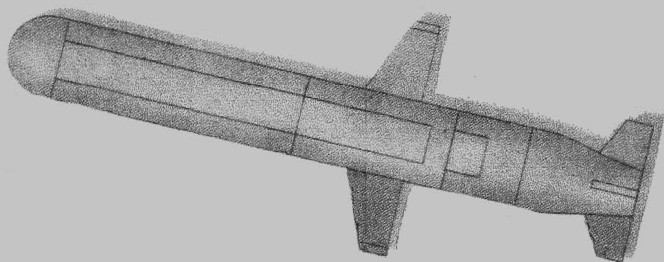

The March 1990 Amnesty International Urgent Action letter writing campaign focused on freeing Daphne Parish, a British nurse being held in Iraq by that brutal, heinous, evil, scumsucking, totally unreasonable dictator, Saddam Hussein. The letter writing campaign was, of course, successful. Ms. Parish was released within thirty days of the initiation of the campaign.

Irony number 2:

As vice-president, George Bush cast the deciding vote in the United States Senate when the 100 U.S. Senators were deadlocked 50-50 in deciding whether or not to condemn Saddam Hussein for the use of chemical weapons on Kurdish tribesmen in Iraq. Mr. Bush, of course, voted not to condemn Hussein for this action. Hmmm ...

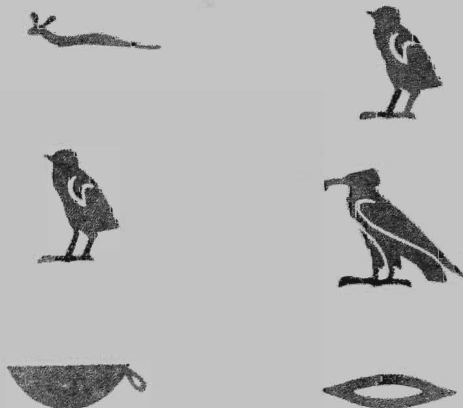

Projectile, n. The final arbiter in international disputes. Formerly these disputes were settled by physical contact of the disputants, with such simple arguments as the rudimentary logic of the times could supply -- the sword, the spear, and so forth. With the growth of prudence in military affairs the projectile came more and more into favor, and is now held in high esteem by the most courageous. Its capital defect is that it requires personal attendance at the point of propulsion. -Ambrose Bierce
